Case Heard Intermittently.

Special to The Tribune.

PROVO, March 3.—The case of J. E. Smiley against the Utah Lake Land, Water & Power company and B. M. Whitney is again being heard before Judgo A. E. Morgan. It will take up the rest of the wesk and will probably not be finished by that time. The suit involves questions of alleged false representations relative to the irrigation water supply for the land at Eiberta purchased by the plaintiff from the defendant. On account of the great volume of testimony the suit is being heard intermittently, when the court and attorneys can find time from other regular business. This is the third or fourth installment of the hearing. Attorney Bismark Snyder and Judge R. C. Orr are representing the plaintiff and Captain E. A. Wedgwood the defendants.

KELLEY SAID TO BE

Officers of Knights of Maccabees Said to Have Trace of Supposed Suicide.

Hugh J. Kelley, who is supposed to have drowned himself in the Jordan river, is alive and well, according to Earl T. Turner, grand record keeper of the Knights of the Maccabees, Indianapolis.

Turner makes this statement in a letter to Mrs. Kelley, which was received yesterday in reply to her request for payment on an insurance policy carried by Kelley in the Maccabee lodge. Mrs. Kelley turned the letter over to the county attorney, inasmuch as a complaint is outstanding against Kelley, charging him with a statutory offense

According to the letter, the Maccahee national lodge has conducted a thorough investigation into the strange disappearance of Kelley, and it has gained sufficient information to know
for certain that Kelley is still alive and well, though they cannot name his whereabouts at the present time.

Kelley disappeared about two months ago, leaving a note to his wife that he was going to drown himself and telling her to look for his body in the
